EDAMBA Thesis Competition 2015

1ST PRIZE
Ivanisevic Hernaus Ana, University of Zagreb
Development of Socially Responsible Investment through Different Investment Strategies

2ND PRIZE
Bothello Joel, ESSEC Business School Paris
From Global Formulation to Local Legitimation: The Trajectory of Urban Sustainability

3rd PRIZE
Benlemlih Mohammed, University of Grenoble Alpes
The Double Edged Sword of Corporate Social Responsibility: Mechanisms to Sustain Shareholders’ Wealth and Avoid Social Overinvestment

The following dissertations have been distinguished (with no ranking):

Breunig, Kj, BI Norwegian Business School
Realizing Reticulation: A Comparative Study of Capability Dynamics in Two International Professional Service Firms over 10 Years

Fletcher, Luke, University of Kent
Understanding the Experience of Job Engagement within Everyday Working Life: A Mixed Methods Study across Six Organizational Settings

Rangus, Kaja, University of Ljubljana
Proclivity for Open Innovation: Construct Development, Determinants and Outcomes

Hyde, Margaret, Manchester Metropolitan University
Understanding Dimensionality in Health Care

Karasiewicz Baudot, Lisa, ESSEC Business School Paris
A Study of The US GAAP - IFRS Convergence Process: Institutions and Institutionalization in Global Accounting Change

Logemann, Minna, Aalto University
“Strategic Change under Construction: Role of Strategy Narratives